MIGRATION BIOGRAPHIES EUROPE ON THE MOVE

All the participants were welcomed by the host school team and then transferred to Schloss Fürstenried.

On Monday 3rd December there was a common meeting with all delegations welcomed by the teachers of the German school .

The program started with a short walk around Munich city center and historical sights. We saw from the tower of St. Peter's church around Viktualienmarkt, City Hall, Marienplatz. On a walking tour we were shown Feldherrenplatz, Theatinerkirche, Residenz, Opernplatz.

Afterwards we all met at a bowling center in Munich where students and teachers enjoyed a welcome party and the students had the chance to mingle and know each other better.

On Tuesday 4th December , the teachers and the students met again at the host school and after a short tour they attended classes (jobshadowing) at the Feodor-Lynen-Gymnasium school. The teachers did attend English lessons on different levels.

Later on, we all had lunch at school and the teachers had a meeting in order to organize their work in etwinning and the padlet tool. In the afternoon all together attended the German presentation on educational system in Germany. Finally they all had dinner together at Bräustüberbl with typical regional food.

On Wednesday 5th December teachers decided on exploring etwinning intensively together. Then the presentations of the guest groups followed in presence of several journalists. (Süddeutsche Zeitung, Münchner Merkur)

The first group were the students from Italy, then the Greeks continued and finally the Portuguese.

Photos from groups and ongoing presentations were taken to be published in the next days' paper.

Afterwards Mr. Jochen Kubosch (European speakers team) gave a lecture on the European Policy on migration and asylum, followed by a controversial discussion.

After lunch, we went to the exhibition "Migration" in "Münchner Stadtmuseum". We also visited the "Middle Age Christmas Market" at Wittelsbacher Platz.

On Thursday 6th December, we exchanged presents and we were welcomed by Mayor Mr Heinrich Hofmann at Planegg's Town Hall. After being invited for lunch in the rooms of the fire brigade, we started to work on the final agreements. A buffet was prepared for all of us as farewell dinner.

On Friday 7th December, we gathered to complete the report and agree on the activities for next meetings.

Decisions at the end of the meeting:

1. E-twinning will be used and the students will go on presenting their materials that way.
2. The teachers will instruct the students according to the tasks they will have to undertake.9
