NEA MOUDANIA

(Greek: Νέα Μουδανιά, Néa Moudaniá; which is the name of the municipal unit the town belongs to) is the seat of the municipality of Nea Propontida, Chalkidiki, Greece and its main town.

The town is located 60 km south of Thessaloniki and is considered to be the financial and commercial center of the regional unit of Chalkidiki.

It was built after 1922 by Greek refugees from Anatolia who wanted to give the new settlement the name of their hometown (now Mudanya, Turkey).
