

ΣΥΝΕΝΤΕΥΞΕΙΣ ΣΤΑ ΑΓΓΛΙΚΑ

Interview of Xrysopigi (16 years old) who emigrated from Greece (Chalkidiki) to Dortmund (Germany).

My name is Xrysopigi and I am 15 years old. I went to Germany when I was eight years old and I did not have any difficulty moving country.

I did not encounter any difficulty when I first came to Germany because I immediately went to a Greek school. They were all very friendly with me and I made many friends, so I did not face any racism.

I left my country because my mother had to work as a nurse in a hospital. I adapted to German life very fast because I learned the language quickly. I really enjoy their cakes and chocolate for their unique taste.

The most famous celebrations in Germany are the potato festival, the carnival of Cologne and we do not have classes on the day that the wall of Berlin fell. Also we follow the Greek customs. I am very proud of my Greek heritage.
